Extraordinary Women Conference
Berglund Center | Roanoke Virginia

“BE FEARLESS”

October 5 - 6, 2018

by Sandy Houston

Eleven Round Hill ladies will be attending the “Be Fearless” conference on October 5 and 6, at the Berglund Center in Roanoke, Virginia. On Friday, October 5, the ladies will depart from Round Hill at noon and return home on Saturday, October 6, around 9:00 pm.

This event is full of wonderful Christian speakers such as Sheila Walsh, Jo Saxton, Julie Clinton and Shelene Bryan. Comedian, Chonda Pierce will also be there as well as top of the line Christian musical artist such as Nichole Nordeman, Michael O’Brien and For King & Country. It looks to be a Mountain Top of a weekend!

Sanctuary Renovation Update

The hardwood floors have been refinished and new carpet has been installed. The pews have been cleaned and polished. A new floor covering will be installed in the foyer. New pew cushions are on order with a planned delivery in October.

World Communion Sunday

The Lord’s Supper will be observed on October 7, to participate in World Communion Sunday.

Everyone Invited to Harvest Party - Sunday, October 28 - 4:00 pm

Join us at Tommy & Sandy Berry’s Marengo Farm at 10114 Marengo Farm Lane in King George, on Sunday, October 28 for hayrides, pony rides, guess the number of candies, crafts and games for all ages. Fun begins at 4:00 pm. Food will be served at 4:30 pm. The church will provide hot dogs, chips and drinks. We ask that you bring other finger foods and desserts to share. Also bring chairs for your comfort and a jacket as it gets cool in the evening. We are asking for food pantry donations as well. Other activities include: Activities & Games - We are asking our youth and Adult Sunday School Classes to provide an activity or game. Cake Walk - Bring goodies such as cakes, pies, cookies, brownie, etc. for the Cake Walk. Trunk or Treat - If you would like to participate, please park your car behind the barn and have your trunk decorated and ready by 4:30 pm for judging. If you are not decorating your trunk, you can still bring a bag of candy to hand out to the kids. If you would like to volunteer for games or other support, please contact Tina Rogers (tinarogers2002@yahoo.com), Judy Purks (judypqh1962@gmail) or Donna Barnum (dbarnum@roundhillbaptist.com).

“Sing a new song to the Lord! Let the whole earth sing to the Lord! Sing to the Lord, praise his name. Each day proclaim the good news that he saves.” Psalm 96:1-2 (NLT)

I have always loved the Psalms, probably because so many of them encourage us to sing and I love to sing. Recently, I had the wonderful opportunity to, once again, attend the Sing! 2018 conference. Led by Keith and Kristyn Getty, this conference was inspired by the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. The focus of Sing! is to help individuals, families and churches to deepen their faith through singing. This year’s theme was The Psalms: Ancient + Modern. Though I have read through the Psalms several times, I discovered there was still much I needed to learn from the Bible’s songbook. The Psalms are a collection of songs and prayers which express the heart and soul of humanity. I admit, I have had a tendency to focus on the ‘rejoicing’ ones. I was reminded that the Psalms express every aspect of the human experience. The writers have poured out their honest feelings to God whether they are rejoicing or in despair. They give us a picture of the power of God’s love and forgiveness. They are the song of God’s Salvation for us. Meditating on the Psalms can help lead us into a deeper relationship with God. I encourage you to join me in reading the Psalms this month.

Blessings, Donna

Opportunities to fellowship and learn about missions

by Belinda Cameron

Our October meeting will be on Monday the 15th at 6:30 PM in the fellowship hall. Light refreshments will be served. Come enjoy some fellowship and mission study and action with other ladies of the church. All ages encouraged to attend! This month we are preparing Fall Cards for our college students. Ladies can bring a $10 gift card from any fast food restaurant. Donations can also be made to the College Ministry (budget line item 1502) by anyone wanting to participate in this ministry.

Just us Women—Taking it to Heart is the theme of this year’s Women’s Get-Away held November 2-3 at Eagle Eyrie in Lynchburg, Virginia. Join us for missionary speakers, over 20 breakout sessions to select from, music, fellowship and more. The cost is approximately $74 which includes lodging and 3 meals. We would need to leave King George around noon on Friday, November 2. Please contact Belinda Cameron for more information.

Round Hill preparing Thanksgiving food baskets

by Judy Purks

Thanksgiving Baskets

As each of us prepares for the remainder of the year, please keep in mind that we will fill Thanksgiving food baskets. We provide 20 baskets for Social Services and 10 additional baskets for suggested families within our church family or others who would greatly appreciate the support.

Food collection will begin Sunday, October 28, and end on November 18. For those who don’t like to shop, we will gladly do the shopping for you. Cash or check donations are always welcome (line item #1220).

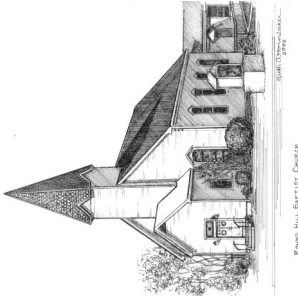

If you need a basket for someone, please tell Belinda Cameron, Sandy Berry or Judy Purks. We only want the number of baskets, not the name. It will be your responsibility, as in years past, to pick up and deliver the baskets. The deadline for requesting baskets is Sunday, November 4 to help us with planning. Requested baskets need to be picked up on Tuesday, November 20. Thank you in advance for your continued support of this appreciative ministry at Round Hill.

Senior Potluck

We invite all adults (55 and older) to join us on Friday, October 19 at noon for a potluck in the fellowship hall. Please bring sides and desserts to go with soup and salad. We hope to see you there! Questions? See Edna Dobson, Lori Minter or Traci Rongey.
